Freedom Old Home Week Association Executive Board

For over 120 years, Freedom Old Home Week stands as one of our town's oldest and most cherished traditions.

A celebration and sharing of community, Old Home Week is organized by a team of dedicated volunteer members of the Freedom Old Home Week Association. Some of our members have lived here for decades; others are newer to Freedom but just as keen to help ensure that the events making up Old Home Week are fun and inclusive for all. What we all share is a deep love for our Town and Village and a commitment to working together to keep this amazing small town tradition alive.

Won't you consider joining us?
We would love to work with you!

The Freedom Old Home Week Association is seeking new members, and especially welcomes nominations and self-nominations for the following Executive Board positions, each with an initial term of office of one (1) year:

- Chairperson

The Executive Board meets monthly (it gathers remotely currently), and the Association holds an Annual Meeting each January for all members. If at this time, you aren't able to commit to being an Executive Board member, we hope you would consider joining the Freedom Old Home Week Association as a member - we're a fun group and welcome new members at any time of the year.
