For more than 120 years, Freedom Old Home Week stands as one of our town's oldest and most cherished traditions.

A celebration and sharing of community, Old Home Week is organized by a team of dedicated volunteer members of the Freedom Old Home Week Association. Some of our members have lived here for decades; others are newer to Freedom but just as keen to help ensure that the events making up Old Home Week are fun and inclusive for all. What we all share is a deep love for our Town and Village and a commitment to working together to keep this amazing small town tradition alive.

Won't you consider joining us?
