

2022 FOHW T-SHIRT/HOODIE DESIGN ARTIST ASHTON INGHAM

Hello, my name is Ashton Ingham and I am really excited to have won the 2022 Freedom Old Home Week t-shirt design contest!

I am twelve years old and a 6th grader at Freedom Elementary School. My family and I moved to Freedom about 5 years ago and we love it here. This small town has a rich history, a wonderful school, and a fantastic library.

Besides art I also like to play chess, solve rubik's cubes, play the drums, and eat pizza!

When it comes to art though, it's not just drawing and painting that I'm into but also drama, writing, and music.

Whatever the art form, I think art is a fun way to convey thoughts, ideas, and emotions through the swish of a brush or the strum of a guitar.
